

Name: _____ Phone: _____

2017 SPINK CONSERVATION DISTRICT HAND PLANT ORDER FORM

We would like to offer you the opportunity to buy trees specifically grown for South Dakota. All trees and shrubs are bare root and conservation grade. This is a sample of what we can offer; if you do not see what you are looking for please contact our office at (605) 472-1437 Ext. 3 or email lvy at ivy.lathampazour@sd.nacdn.net. Additional descriptions are available at SpinkCD.org.

Shrubs Seedlings (3-25' Mature)

Bare Root Stock	Price	QTY	Description
Black Chokeberry	$2.00		Attractive white flowers, glossy foliage, and black berries. Excellent fall color.
Buffaloberry	$2.00		Native, drought tolerant with silver leaves. Good for jelly and wildlife.
Caragana	$2.00		Drought tolerant, long lived with fine yellow flowers with non-edible pods.
Chokecherry	$2.00		Native. White flowers in late April, fruits used in jams. Excellent for wildlife.
Schubert Chokecherry	$2.00		Native. Reddish-purple foliage, same characteristic as chokecherry.
Redstemmed Dogwood	$2.00		Native. Red stems provide good winter color, can tolerate wetter soils.
Elderberry	$2.00		White flowers with dark berries when ripe. Good for jelly and wildlife
False Indigo	$2.00		Native. Fast growing with purple flowers. Prefers moist soils.
Highbush Cranberry	$2.00		Native. White flowers, red fruit that can be used for jelly, excellent fall color.
Common Lilac	$2.00		Dense, suckering growth, fragrant white and purple flowers.
White Lilac	$2.00		Same as common lilac with white flowers.
Villosa Lilac	$2.00		Will not sucker. Rosy-lilac to white flowers, blooms later than common lilac.
Mongolian Cherry	$2.00		Glossy leaves. White flowers and tart red fruit good for making jelly.
Nanking Cherry	$2.00		Showy flowers, sweet red fruit good for jelly and wildlife.
Plum	$2.00		Native, White flowers, edible fruit, good for jelly and wildlife.
Prairie Red Plum	$2.00		Similar to American Plum with better fruit quality and size, up to 1.25 in.
Sandbar Willow	$2.00		Native. Suckers quickly to form hedge. Needs moist soils, doesn't tolerate sod.
Sand Cherry	$2.00		Native. White flowers in spring, purple fruit in summer that is good for jelly.
Seaberry	$2.00		Tolerates drought high pH, and saline soils. Needs well drained soils. Thorns.
Silverberry	$2.00		Native. Silver leaves. Tolerates drought, high pH and saline soils.
Smooth Sumac	$2.00		Native. Great red fall color. Dark red seedheads. Moderate drought tolerance.
Nannyberry Viburnum	$2.00		Native. Shiny leaves, white flowers, and excellent fall colors.

Medium Trees Seedlings (15-30' Mature)

Apricot	$2.00		Pink flowers subject to frost. May produce edible fruit 2 out of 5 years.
Amur Chokecherry	$2.00		Showy white flowers, black fruit, attractive copper-color bark, very cold hardy.
Pin Cherry	$2.00		Native. White flowers, red fruit. Leaves and twigs poisonous to humans & livestock.
Midwest Crab	$2.00		Showy white flowers, small red resistant fruit. Excellent for wildlife.
Red Splendar Crab	$2.00		Flowers are pink or white. Foliage green to red in color, excellent for wildlife.
Harbin Pear	$2.00		Hardy, slow growing tree, does well in wetter soils.
Tatrian Maple	$2.00		Similar to Amur Maple, better alkaline soils tolerance, yellow, pink, or red fall color.
Amur Maple	$2.00		Brilliant red fall color. Usually forms several trunks.
Mullberry	$2.00		Fast growing, edible pink, purple or black fruit attracts birds. Drought tolerant.
Russian Olive	$2.00		Grayish green leaves, fragrant flowers, fruit good for wildlife. Drought tolerant.
Laurel Leaf Willow	$2.00		Wide glossy leaves, does well in wetter soils.

Tall Trees Seedlings (25'+ Mature)

Quaking Aspen	$2.00		Native. Fast growing, cold tolerant, leaves flutter in the breeze.
Black Cherry	$2.00		Native. Dark fruit, white flowers. Leaves and twigs poisonous to humans and livestock.
Black Walnut	$2.00		Native. Valuable wood, edible nuts that attracts wildlife.
Boxelder	$2.00		Native. Flood plain tree does well in moist upland soils. Intolerant of 2,4D drift.
Bur Oak	$2.00		Native. Extremely tough, drought tolerant, long lived. Acorns for wildlife.
4-5' Bur Oak	$10.00
Catalpa	$2.00		Native. Huge leaves, beautiful white flowers, produces long pods.
Hybrid Cottonwood	$2.00		Fast growing shade tree that has no cotton. Short lived.
4-5' Hybrid Cottonwood	$10.00
Native Cottonwood	$2.00		Fast growing shade tree that produces cotton.
4-5' Native Cottonwood	$10.00
Green Ash	$2.00		Native, high pH and drought tolerance. Emerald Ash Borer is a threat.
Golden Willow	$2.00		Narrow leaves, yellow to reddish twigs, tolerate of moist soils, fast growing.
Hackberry	$2.00		Native. Good shade tree, drought tolerant and very long lived and adaptable.
4-5' Hackberry	$10.00
Honeylocust	$2.00		Native. Fine lacy looking leaves, long brown pods. Tough and adaptable.
4-5' Honeylocust	$10.00
Kentucky Coffee Tree	$2.00		Native. Coarse branches. Produces flat pods with hard round seeds.
American Linden	$2.00		Native. Attractive fragrant white flowers in June.
4-5' American Linden	$10.00
Little Leaf Linden	$2.00		Same as American Linden except for pyramidal growth.
4-5' Little Leaf Linden	$10.00
Freeman Maple	$2.00		Naturally occurring hybrid of Silver & Red Maple. Fast growing & good fall color.
4-5' Freeman Maple	$10.00
Sliver Maple	$2.00		Native. Fast growing, yellow fall color.

*Tree tubes work great for medium and tall trees. They will protect them from deer and help them grow faster and stronger.

Conifers Seedlings (Evergreens 40-60' Mature)

Eastern Red Cedar	$2.25		Native. Drought tolerant, reddish brown to purple in winter. Good for wildlife.
Rocky Mountain Juniper	$2.25		Silver blue prickly needles, very hardy.
Black Hills Spruce	$2.25		Native. Soft rounded needles, dense, state tree of South Dakota.
Meyer Spruce	$2.50		Similar to Colorado Spruce, more tolerant of drought, less insect/disease troubles.
Norway Spruce	$2.25		Green needles, large cones, ascending branches.
Austrian Pine	$2.25		Medium length needles, shiny dark green, silvery white bud, slowing growing.
Ponderosa Pine	$2.25		Long needles, native to the Black Hills, fast growing once established.
Scotch Pine	$2.25		Short blue green needles, prefers sandy to loam soils.

